

CERL WORKSHOP

Columbia University, Butler Library 523, Thursday 28 January 2016, 1.00-3.00pm

A presentation of the Consortium of European Research Libraries (CERL), its latest research activities and future plans, by the CERL Secretary and CERL Directors

- CERL Group of American Libraries
- CERL's Security Working Group: it's Security Network, workshops and recent conference on Library security: practices and strategies (Vatican Library, 8 May 2015). A report from the Chair of the CERL Security Working Group (Kristian Jensen)
- Presentation of the new Material Evidence in Incunabula (MEI) database and of the new database TEXT-inc.
- Overview of 2015 activities and 2016 calendar

Will be present:

Cristina Dondi, Senior Research Fellow in the Humanities, Lincoln College, Oxford

Kristian Jensen, Head of Collections and Curation, the British Library, London

Richard Ovenden, Bodley's Librarian, Oxford

Edwin Schroeder, Beinecke Library Director, Yale

Afternoon refreshments will follow. Attendance is free but please rsvp to secretariat@cerl.org.