Concrete collaboration with other bodies

Next steps & conclusion

Which ones ?

- ✓ IFLA- International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions
- ✓ ICA- International Council on Archives
- ✓ ILAB- International League of Antiquarian Booksellers
- ✓ EUROPOL
- ✓ Blue Shield

First project in progress (very first steps):

- ✓ Development of a "collection rescue exercise" model that could be transposable with adaptations in the different regions through poles
- ✓ With an emphasis on the traceability of displaced collections and all other precautions to avoid theft and vandalism
- ✓ Currently in progress: at the initiative of Angela Dellebeke (Archives The Netherlands) and Jacqueline Lambert (KBR), first attempt in order to get buy-in to organize such an exercise within a middle term. A first meeting was held in Brussels in June 19-20. There were representatives from the National Archives of Belgium, the Belgian Royal institute for cultural heritage, Blue shield Belgium –France- The Netherlands, the Archives of UCL (University) and KBR
- ✓ The first other poles could be developed at the initiative of a SWG's member in collaboration with Blue Shield representatives or others

Some possible other targets:

- ✓ Developing a sort of lobbying in order to influence on how the thefts could encounter more severe sentences.
- ✓ Formalizing the procedure for reporting cases to the police in the respective countries.
