Innovative Approach to sources

- ❑ Converting physical evidence into historical evidence
- ❑ Capturing the movement of the books as evidence of trade and use by tagging geographically and chronologically
- ❑ Integration of provenance records from different sources: book-in-hand, paper catalogues, and soon, electronic ones

15cBOOKTRADE PROJECT

- ❑ 1. Distribution, trade routes, use and reception of books
- ❑ 2. Transmission and dissemination of the texts
- ❑ 3. Contemporary sales and prices
- ❑ 4. Circulation and re-use of Illustration

Baron Horace De Landau, 1824-1903

Title:
Bookplate provenance

Query:
Can anyone recognize the bookplate and identify whether it is another provenance marking for the Biblioteca Galletti, or if it is one used by another library or collector?

Created:
2012-01-06 (last changed: 2014-08-25) by CourtauldSpecialCollections

Description:
We know the book was owned by Biblioteca Galletti. But he would have been quite a late owner in the book's history, so is the bookplate his or does it pre-date his ownership? The book came to us in the bequest of the late John Shearman, who did not use bookplates to mark his books.

Bibliographic Details:

Thank you for that help, it is much appreciated, the catalogue record has now been amended.

User davidshaw wrote on 2012-01-08

The CERL Thesaurus record (click the link above) has related information from the Bayerische Staatsbibliothek, Munich: three incunables from their collections with Landau's book plate, two of which were also in the Biblioteca Galletti.

User FarleyKatz wrote on 2012-01-08

Landau lived in Florence (Villa Landau) and had a major collection of 16th and 17th century books, including a First Folio. See Anthony J. West, The Shakespeare First Folio: A New Worldwide Census, no. 203. A catalog of his collection was printed in 1885. It was sold at Sotheby's in 1948.

Two research approaches

- ❑ 1. upload an image and find match using the image-matching software
- ❑ 2. browsing images by type, that is key words or iconclass classification

Challenges: 2

❑ ISTC non systematic in the indication of presence/absence of illustration

❑ GW not complete

- Systematic information on presence/absence of illustration by the end of the project (which one, 15cBOOKTRADE or ERC Proof of concept?)

I am a Quaker, who in spirit,
 Do come from the Whop-an-Geant
 To whisper softly in your ear,
 Be ye up to the eyes, and down to the feet;
 Watch ye all words ye do to mouth,
 For here another's little tour,
 Have ye all.

Since Venus had's off all my hair,
 Richard's Perriwig I wear;
 Which belongs to the golden Curls;
 Since Venus has the Golden Curls,
 Then Love hath got a Cavalier;
 My young mistress, an Italian
 Have at it.

But not that there are little children,
and of them tell us, and naming the way
we get into the paper, and then go from the gate to the door, and then the way into the world of the new world,
the new world to the right hand,
Have at all.

When you I give up to the dust,
 A Coroner's office I must
 To the rest of the world.
 For I to tell you - no more;
 Since we are all dead,
 With me or without me, I shall be
 One of the many who are Dead as a doornail.

PROVENANCE QUESTIONS

Which books were printed in Venice and exported, purchased, and used in Germany or Poland in the fifteenth century?

Or printed in Nuremberg and used in Italy in the 16c?

What kind of books?

And used by whom?

How?

How much did early printed books cost?

Were there any female readers?

And what kind of books were purchased by students, lawyers, or priests, in the 15th, 16th or later centuries, in Italy, France or anywhere else?

Which mathematical editions were acquired by religious institutions?

Who was buying Ptolemy in the Renaissance? Who was collecting it in the 18c?

PROVENANCE QUESTIONS

Can we quantify the amount of 15c printed books which entered European and American collections as a direct consequence of the dissolution of religious institutions and their libraries in the 18c and 19c?

Which works survive today in the largest number of copies?

And in the smallest?

Do we have benchmarks that can help us gauge the quality and the quantity of what we have lost over a 500 year period?
